

Please leave satellite radio alone. For once we can enjoy a station without a constant barrage of ads. The airwaves are free, and we are paying for the luxury of uninterrupted programming. Leaave it be.